What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams?
What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

One must believe in the distinction between ethical rules and political imperatives

An individual who is very skilled at debating politics and issues related to it.

To tell the truth even if against, not to do injustice, not to use people as tools, always to be advocates of justice, not to lie, not to receive.

Political action should be taken based on reality and keeping interests and benefits in mind.

Tactics they employ to win arguments are often quite brutal and disrespectful

In politics something that is extremely large and powerful and cannot be stopped.

Avoid paying for the vote.

Promises should be fulfilled without betraying the people

People hate politics because some politicians make false promises and deceive people.

Politicians should avoid making false promises in election.

In government jobs some politicians misuse their position to steel money from people.

All benefits given by the government to the people do not fully accrue to the people.
